

Student Activity Group Translator. GAS operates at the Department of Linguistics Applied. The mentor is dr Irena Kudlińska (e-mail: irena.kudlinska@byd.pl). students GAS perform internal translations necessary for WSG cooperation with other universities and services for English-speaking students, abstract translations and keywords for scientific articles. They participate in consultations regarding text translations (to avoid language interference) for help the substantive lecturers of English speakers from the cathedral. They have the opportunity to participate in language courses and in translation classes. A member of the group represented College at the educational fair in Tbilisi. Students help in organizing events for first-year foreign students and look after delegations arriving at WSG, showing guests around the campus and city.