

Student Activity Group "Canada". GAS operates at the Department of Linguistics Applied. The GAS mentor is dr Ewa Welnic (e-mail: ewa.welnic@byd.pl). students English philology, mainly representatives of the second year of full-time studies, and part-time students have prepared presentations in the 2018/2019 academic year "Canada - its cultural and literary identity" in the following areas:

☒ Canada - geography, provinces and time zones.

☒ National identity, symbols.

☒ National parks in Canada – nature

. ☒ Indigenous people of Canada - Indians and their beliefs.

☒ Nunavut - Inuit state.

☒ How did modern Canada come about? Fathers of the Confederation. Canada's political system - constitutional monarchy.

☒ Ottawa - the capital of Canada and its significance. Differences between provinces and territories

. ☒ Ethnic minorities. Canadian multiculturalism. Presentations are currently being prepared in the following areas:

☒ Canadian literature in English - historical outline, literary periods.

☒ Alice Munro - the first Canadian Nobel Prize winner.

☒ Leonard Cohen, Margaret Atwood.

☒ Canadian English vs American English.